Café in Berlin is the first German book I've been able to make my way through, which is something I'm rather proud of. The ten short stories are less individual tales and more of a relatively cohesive narrative about an Italian man, named Dino, looking for work in Berlin. Each story is only a few pages in length and progress in di

Café in Berlin by André Klein - Goodreads

"Café in Berlin is a collection of ten short stories, which follow the life of a young man from Sicily who has just moved to Berlin. It explores the daily life in the German capital, offering insights about the country and people from a foreign perspective." - Benny Lewis, international bestselling author and founder of Fluent in 3 Months
