The Daughter A Gripping Psychological

The Daughter by Lucy Dawson is described as a gripping psychological thriller and in part this is true. Either I'm reading too many such books, which helps me figure out what's going on, long before the twist is revealed or the twist isn't that hard to figure out. Either way, the book gets 6.5/10 from me.

A book entitled "The Daughter-in-Law: A Gripping New Psychological Thriller". Glad they told me. I might not have realized it was gripping or thrilling. Because you see, I actually would have slightly reworded that as "...A Predictable Mess of Terminally Stupid People Making Hilariously Rotten Choices", or something like that.
