By moving the balls on the board you form lines (horizontal, vertical and diagonal) of at least five balls of the same color. Once you formed a line, the balls in this line disappear and you earn some points. If you did not form a line, three new balls are added, and the game continues until the board is full.

Shithead Rules. These are the rules that I have always used playing Shithead. There are many variations possible, so this might not be exactly how you are used to playing the game. The purpose of Shithead is to lose all your cards by putting them on the pile. A card that is put on the pile must be equal or higher than the top card of the pile.
